Intern turns lawyer

Atty. Queen Therese D. Espinas, who started her career in the Department as an intern under DOLE's Government Internship Program (GIP), took her oath as the new Attorney III of the Bureau of Working Conditions (BWC) on 16 August 2022, as administered by Director Alvin B. Curada.

After serving as Executive Assistant at the DOLE-Employees Compensation Commission from 2014-2016 under the contract of service, she joined the BWC as Senior Labor and Employment Officer in 2016.

Since joining the Bureau, Atty. Espinas managed to gain knowledge and experience by attending various supervisory, highly-technical and specialized training. As the new Attorney III of the BWC, the Department has no doubt that it has been armed with someone with the skills, experience, and heart to serve the government and the Filipino people.

Atty. Espinas is a Bachelor of Arts in Economics graduate from Bicol University, gained her Juris Doctor degree in 2019 at the Arellano University School of Law, hurdled the bar exam in 2019, and took her oath as a new lawyer on 02 May 2022.
